

Book Signing / Church Fundraiser Event with Dangerous Faith

Dangerous Faith (NavPress) was released nationwide on September 15, 2007. The author, Joel Vestal, is working with local churches to create a book signing event to equip and encourage individuals in their walk with Christ and gain a broader vision for the world. Proceeds from the sale of the book can go to whatever ministry the church desires (i.e., youth group mission trip).

Here is how it works:

- Select a Sunday that you can promote this event
- You can order books directly from NavPress and get a 50% discount made available to churches
- You can order as many books as you want for the book signing event
- Joel Vestal will come to your church and can share 5-10 minutes about the book during the church service and then sign the books that people purchase
- You can sell the books at the price you desire and allow the proceeds to go towards a ministry of your church
- You can return the books to NavPress that are not sold

To order books contact: Pamela Mendoza 1-800-366-7788 719-531-3590 (direct line) Pamela.mendoza@navpress.com
--

More about Dangerous Faith:

Brief Summary of the book - The book is a holistic picture of Christian discipleship/transformation that always involves passion for God and compassion for people (in local and global places). It advocates a concern for the whole church to take the whole gospel to the whole world and always with the understanding that prayer is the fuel and foundation for both life and vocation (whatever that work would be).

Author Joel Vestal believes that the faith of a Christian should be active, engaged, informed, and, yes, dangerous. In his new release, Dangerous Faith (NavPress), Vestal directs Christians in the pursuit of knowing and serving Jesus. Through his remarkable real life stories and passionate voice, he challenges Christians everywhere to live out the biblical practices of prayer, compassion, justice, simplicity, and service in a creative and authentic way, regardless of one's age or vocation.

Vestal goes on to tell Christians that in order to grow a deep vibrant faith Christians need to be more active. Instead of simply discussing matters of compassion and justice on behalf of the world's marginalized people, Christians should unite and become part of the Christ-hope and relief that changes the world one life at a time.

Even the most cursory of readings through the New Testament supports Vestal's thoughts and shows that Christianity is an active faith, a service-based faith and, yes, a dangerous faith. Many first century Christians lost their family, health, and even their lives following Christ. Today, however, Christianity seems to have been put in a Sunday morning worship-sized box, allowing Christians to worship every Sunday with little to no impact on Monday through Saturday. Simply put, however, many Christians want more!